Dear Parents,

Greetings from PHINMA University of Pangasinan!

The Education Department of the College of Education and Liberal Arts (CELA) continuously equips and trains the University of Pangasinan teacher-education students with the necessary skills, abilities, competencies, and desired Filipino values to respond to the needs of the times and eventually become ideal agents of learning who will teach effectively in their respective field of specialization. In relation to this, various activities and programs are prepared to holistically develop the education students of the university and further propel them to be locally and globally competitive educators. One of these activities is the conduct of the FIELD STUDY OBSERVATION, which is inherent in the Field Study courses included in their curriculum.

The Field Study courses are experiential learning courses that will immerse the teacher-education students in the myriad roles accorded to the teaching profession. Through direct observation and participation, the students will be able to acquaint themselves with the skills and competencies related to, but not limited to, the learner and the learning process, principles and strategies of teaching, classroom management, technology in teaching and learning, assessment in learning and curriculum development process.

As the Department of Education transitions to a face-to-face class this school year, the Field Study observation will then be conducted face-to-face. The 3rd year BEEd and BSEd students will be deployed in different Dagupan DepEd Cooperating Schools for their Field Study Observation. They are required to complete 24 hours of classroom observation from FEBRUARY 27 to MARCH 01, 2023.

If you have queries or want to seek clarifications regarding the FS Observation, you can reach me thru this number, 0915 413 1893, or you can email me at cpvelasco.up@phinmaed.com. Should you wish to confer with the Subject Teacher of the Field Study course, the Field Study Coordinator, or the Dean of the College of Education and Liberal Arts regarding your son/daughter's academic performance or clarification with regard to the Field Study Observation, please feel free to do so. However, if you desire to confer with the Subject Teacher, FS Coordinator, or the College Dean, it would be best if you write beforehand requesting a conference indicating the date and time that you are coming so that you will be expected.

Thank you very much, and we are grateful for your continuous support and unwavering faith in the quality of education we provide for your son/daughter. May God be with you always.

Respectfully yours,

Ms. CHARMEE RAE P. VELASCO
Coordinator, Field Study and Teaching Internship
